The screenshot displays the Publications Office (OP) Portal website. The header includes the URL 'publications.europa.eu/en/applications', a search bar, and navigation links like 'About us', 'Contact', 'Legal notices', 'Cookies', and 'Sitemap'. The main navigation bar features buttons for 'Home', 'Search centre', 'Browse by subject', 'Linked data', and 'EU apps'. The page title is 'EU law and publications'. Below the navigation bar, there's a section titled 'Mobile applications created by the EU institutions and other bodies'. This section lists four applications: CVRIA, netBravo, SESAR, and Zoe makes a splash! Each application entry includes an icon, a title, a description, publication details (date, author, subject), and download links for the App Store and Google Play.

CVRIA

This handy app is the perfect tool for those wishing to stay up-to-date on the work of the Court of Justice of the European Union. It provides easy access to the latest decisions of the Court of Justice, the General Court and the Civil Service Tribunal (including judgments, Opinions and orders), as well as the latest press releases.

Also included is the Court's diary, providing details of hearings, judgments and Opinions for the coming weeks.

For those who need to delve deeper, a search facility provides simple access to the whole of the Court's case law.

Searches can be carried out by case number, party name, date and a free text search.

netBravo is a European Commission crowd-sourcing project designed to gather and share radio spectrum data about mobile telephony coverage, WiFi channel occupancy, broadband and net neutrality connection tests. Anyone with a recent iPhone can download the netBravo app which will automatically record the characteristics of the signal they're getting on their phone - WiFi, 4G, 3G, 2G or nothing - and test the latency, upload and download performance of their Internet connection with additional net neutrality tests they can select.

SESAR

The interactive SESAR App will allow guests attending events run by SESAR, to stay informed, interact with speakers on stage, take notes, participate in Q&A, connect to social media and request further follow up information. The app also provides a convenient way to stay connected with SESAR news and activities. The app is not available at events not organised by SESAR.

State your needs for publications (by answering periodical or occasional surveys)

Dear Sir or Madam,

Further to recent OP changes, DG ECFIN no longer keeps a central stock of its publications. Therefore, the only chance of obtaining hard copies from DG ECFIN is to respond to the surveys sent every three months to all EC Representations and Europe Direct centres. Please contact them if you are a third party institution and wish to order publications via the next survey. The previous survey was sent out on 1 July and closed on 17 July. The next survey will be sent out on 26 October and will close on 13 November.

The image shows a Facebook post from the 'EU Law and Publications' page. The post features a green background with a large white text box that says 'Get our newsletter in your email' and a link to 'http://publications.europa.eu/newsletter'. Below this, there is a profile picture of the EU flag and the page name 'EU Law and Publications' with a verified badge and 'Government Organisation'. To the right, there are icons for 'Contact Us', 'Liked', 'Message', and a menu. At the bottom, the Facebook navigation bar shows 'Timeline' as the active tab, along with 'About', 'Photos', 'Likes', and 'More'. The page's cover photo is visible at the bottom, showing a desk with a computer monitor displaying the newsletter content and a yellow sign that says 'out for June!'.
