

Bocconi Library

Facts and figures

Study visit of EDCs from Romania
Milan, Bocconi University, 2011 September, 21st

As we were, at the beginning

In the Sixties

Bocconi

Today

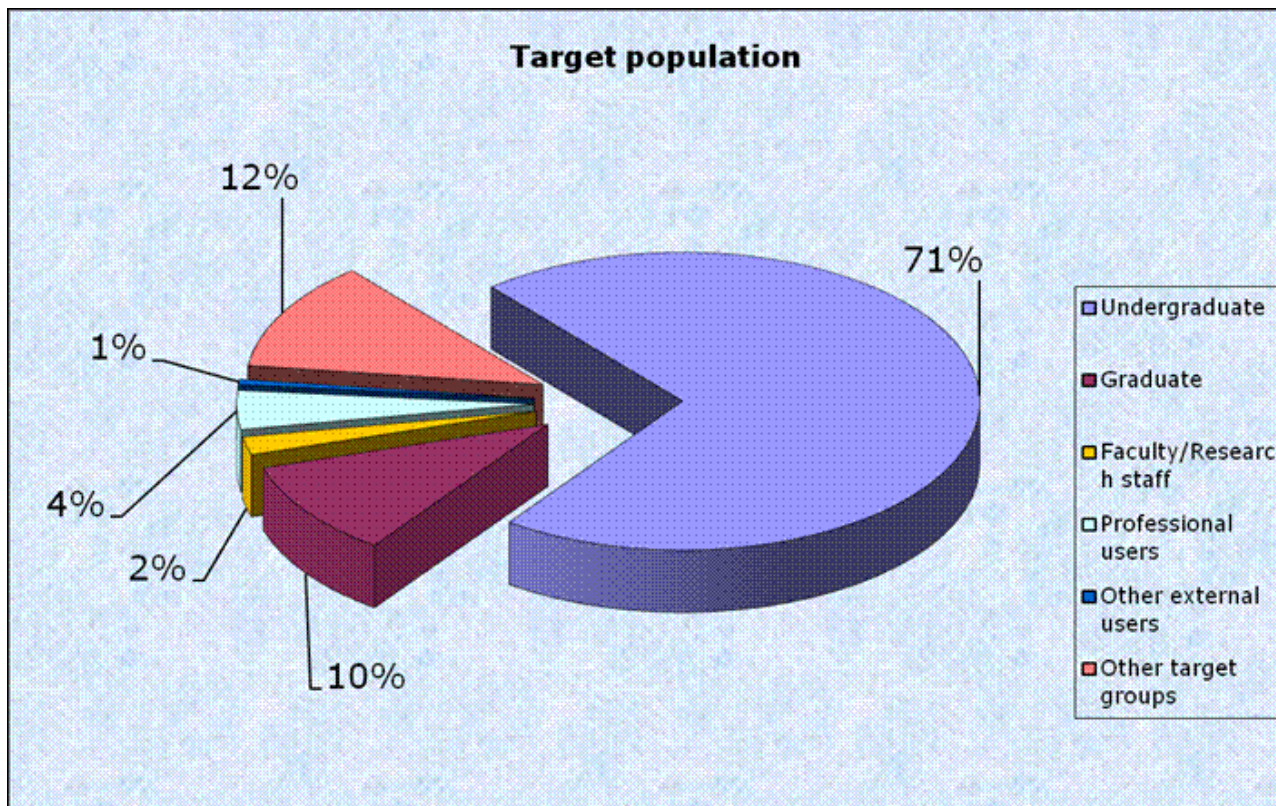

Today

Bocconi

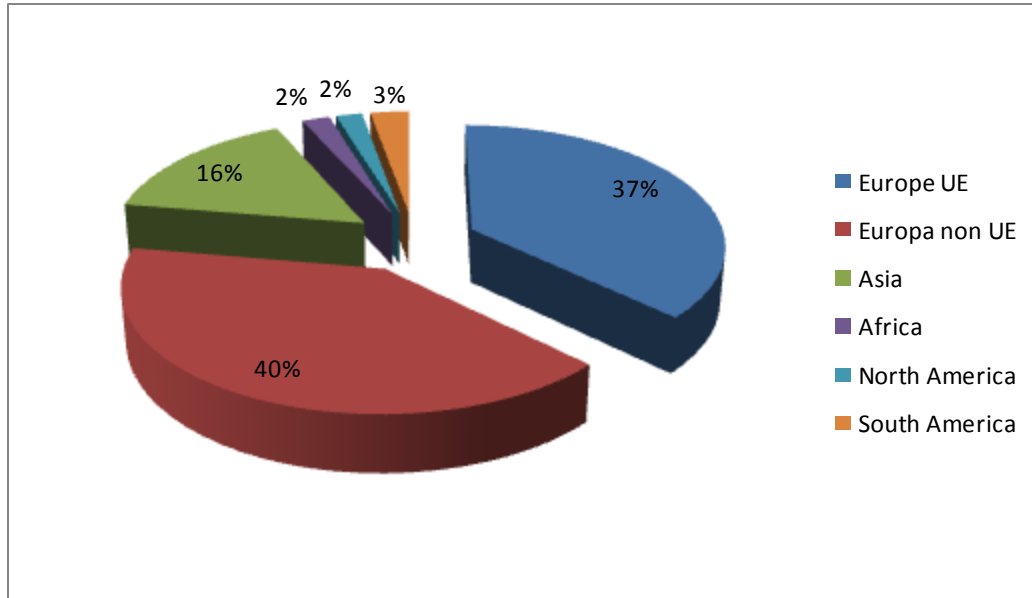

Library users – Who they are

Library users from other countries

Bocconi

Library users and the Library

Bocconi

Every day about 2000 users enter the Library. They read books and journals study in groups (also on Sundays) borrow books (about 130.000 per year)

(The Library is open 81 hours per week)

On and off campus they download electronic articles (about 251.000 per year)
access online bibliographic or financial databases

Library collections

Bocconi

Bocconi library holds one of the wider collection of economic literature in Italy.

360.000 Books

9.500 paper journals

The Library offers also access to

63 Online Databases

21.500 Electronic journals

500 Electronic texts for University Courses

Library – Access services

Bocconi

Library staff help users to get information about collections and services and ask for books and journals in different areas of the Library:

Reception

Reference desk

Electronic Resource Room

EDC

Loans and Interlibrary Loans Dpt

Library – Services for faculty

The Library provides special services designed to enhance faculty research and teaching

✓ Intercampus delivery

Library and ILL books and articles delivered to teachers

✓ Electronic Course reserves

A password protected section of the library website hosts articles and book chapters for university courses

✓ Information Literacy

Teachers can ask the Library for bibliographic workshop for students

✓ Copyright advisor for the University

The library promotes legal use of texts for the courses, and copyright protected works

✓ OPENAIRE project

Bocconi researchers are supported by the Library in complying with the EU requirement about OA